Course registration steps

1. Send us a registration form (via mail or post) – available for download from the home page or available from office@hebebuehne.at.
You are more likely to get a place on a course if you send us a copy of your convention passport or the grey card at the same time (see upper field).
2. When the minimum number of participants has been reached we will then send you a cost quotation in good time and all other information by mail.
3. The Hebebühne Association organises dates with the ÖIF at the course locations at which you can hand in your application for sponsorship with all documents. We will inform you in good time of course dates.
